

Arts and Architecture

The COLLEGE OF ARTS AND ARCHITECTURE has these primary educational objectives: (1) to provide high-quality professional instruction in the fields of architecture, art, art education, art history, graphic design, landscape architecture, music, music education, and theatre arts, and to prepare teachers in those fields; (2) to provide an array of resident instructional opportunities in artistic and environmental areas for all students in the University; and (3) to provide ongoing opportunities for personal growth for the citizens of the Commonwealth through continuing education in all of those arts and professions and by direct involvement in fostering programs of performance, exhibitions, publication, design, planning, and audience development.

The college's mission is the enrichment of the cultural life as an integral part of society's essential needs through enhancement of both the general living environment and the special cultural or aesthetic experiences of the citizens of the Commonwealth. To that end the college focuses upon (1) education, in its broadest sense, through creative expression and appreciation of the fine arts, performance, and design; (2) scholarly research and creative endeavors in the arts for the benefit of faculty and students, as well as for society at large. The college seeks effectiveness in pursuit of its mission through (1) a climate for excellent achievement, fostered by high standards for faculty, with concern that the excellence of their continuing scholarly professional and creative work be balanced with the excellence of their teaching; (2) core stability and strength by maintaining a balance of disciplines that reinforce each other and that approach completeness in the teaching and practice of the arts/architecture range of disciplines; (3) maintaining the scope of its offerings in a broad array of courses and programs and wide diversity of arts exposure and training, within limits imposed by considerations of feasibility, appropriateness, and a significant measure of societal need.

Students can prepare for a professional career in the following fields: (1) architecture, landscape architecture, (architect, landscape architect, planner); (2) art history (art historian, museum curator); (3) art, art education (painter, sculptor, designer, ceramist, printmaker, photographer, art educator); (4) graphic design (art director, project manager, designer), (5) music, music education (performer, composer, musicologist, music educator); (6) theatre (actor, director, designer, technician, dancer), or integrative arts (inter- and multidisciplinary studies).

To be eligible for entrance to a major in this college, a degree candidate must be enrolled in the college or satisfy requirements for entrance to the college. In addition, the degree candidate must meet entrance-to-major requirements of the University, of the college, and of the program area. Under certain circumstances, the University may need to limit enrollments in the college or in certain majors because of space limitations.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC PROFESSOR SUE HAUG, Director

The School of Music offers one general and three professional programs leading to baccalaureate degrees in music. The general program (B.A.) provides a liberal arts education with music as the major subject. Two of the professional programs (B.M.E. and B.Mus.) emphasize the development of proficiency in the major area: music education, music history, composition, or performance, while the B.M.A. is an interdisciplinary program that is intended to prepare students for a career in performance as well as develop a secondary emphasis outside of music. Placement in any degree program is based partly on an audition, a placement examination, and an interview, all of which can be arranged with the director of the School of Music. Such examinations are advisory and designed to counsel the student.

Students in all programs take courses in theory, history, and their major instrument during their first four semesters. (These courses are available only at University Park campus.) All students attend a designated number of recitals and common hours. All B.Mus., B.M.A., and B.M.E. students take jury examinations each semester. All Music majors undergo a comprehensive second-year review of their eligibility to continue.

The School of Music provides opportunities for the non-major student to participate in a wide range of musical activities. Besides the performing ensembles, there are courses specifically designed for the non-major student in music appreciation, rudiments, jazz, and individual and group performance instruction.

SCHOOL OF THEATRE PROFESSOR DAN CARTER, Director

The School of Theatre offers one general and one professional degree leading to baccalaureate degrees in theatre. The general program (B.A.) provides a liberal arts education with theatre as the major subject. The professional program (B.F.A.) emphasizes the development of proficiency in the major area: Musical Theatre, Production, or Stage Management. Placement in any degree program is based partly on an audition/portfolio review and interview.

Students in all programs take courses in dramatic literature, theory, history, and their major area of emphasis as well as the full range of courses that the general education experience comprises.

The School of Theatre offers non-majors THEA 100 The Art of the Theatre (a survey class in theatre appreciation), THEA 102 Fundamentals of Acting, and various special-interest courses.

SCHOOL OF VISUAL ARTS PROFESSOR CHARLES R. GAROIAN, Director

The School of Visual Arts helps students prepare for careers as studio artists or art educators through a combination of professional and liberal studies. The B.A. or B.F.A. degree can be earned in any of six studio areas of concentration: ceramics, drawing and painting, new media, photography, printmaking, or sculpture. The B.S. can be earned in Art Education. The B.A. degree combines a comprehensive liberal education with professional studies in the studio areas. The B.F.A. is a professional degree that develops the competence necessary for a career in art or as preparation for graduate study in visual art. The B.Des. degree in interdisciplinary digital studio program helps students prepare for a career in digital arts. The B.S. in Art Education helps prepare art teachers for either elementary or secondary schools, for educational positions in museums, arts centers, health or custodial care centers, and similar institutions.

Graduates of the Schools option of the Art Education program will have met all of the academic requirements for a teaching certificate in Pennsylvania and in about thirty other states as well.

Graduates of the B.A. or B.F.A. degree program are eligible to pursue graduate studies toward either the M.A. or M.F.A., and those who have earned the B.S. in Art Education are qualified to apply for admission to an M.Ed. or an M.A. (and eventually an Ed.D. or a Ph.D.) program in art education or in art therapy.

Admission consideration for any visual arts degree program requires a portfolio review. The purpose of the portfolio is to determine the talent potential of students who wish to pursue professional degrees in the visual arts.

CONTINUING AND DISTANCE EDUCATION

The Continuing and Distance Education program of the college has a wide variety of programs and activities available to the people within the Commonwealth and will plan special programs upon request.

FORMAL INSTRUCTION--Numerous undergraduate and graduate-level credit courses listed in the bulletin can be conducted throughout the state providing proper facilities and/or equipment are available.

INFORMAL INSTRUCTION--Noncredit courses, workshops, or other types of informal programs (lectures, demonstrations, conferences) are available or will be developed in most areas of the arts. Examples of these are workshops or courses in ceramics, photography, painting, and musical skills.

SPECIAL EVENTS--Concerts and recitals, jazz dance productions, and art exhibits can be scheduled in any appropriate facility. For example, groups of professional musicians are available to perform, as are student groups specializing in various styles of music from contemporary to classical.

INDEPENDENT LEARNING--A limited number of home study courses in the arts are available. Requests for information on all continuing education activities within the college should be addressed to Continuing and Distance Education, College of Arts and Architecture, The Pennsylvania State University, 104 Borland Building, University Park, PA 16802.

GENERAL GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

In order to be certified for graduation a student must complete the general education requirements, the requirements of the major, and the number of elective credits required in each program. The minimum number of credits for each program is listed in the description of the major. In addition to the minimum number of credits required, each student must earn at least a grade of C in designated courses in the major field and must have earned a minimum grade-point average of 2.00.

NOTE: ROTC courses are voluntary; a maximum of 6 ROTC credits may be counted as electives in meeting graduation requirements.

BACHELOR OF ARTS DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

The majors that lead to the B.A. degree require a broad liberal education with an overall view of the arts plus a major program of studies in one of these five fields: art, integrative arts, art history, music, or theatre.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL STUDENTS--All students pursuing a Bachelor of Arts Degree program in the College of Arts and Architecture are required to satisfy 9-24 credits of B.A. requirements as listed below.

In addition, all students in the college must complete 6 credits of arts history. These credits may be counted as a part of the major or, if outside the major, may be counted under the bachelor of arts degree requirements.

BACHELOR OF ARTS DEGREE REQUIREMENTS: 9-24 credits

BACHELOR OF ARTS -- Bachelor of Arts degree majors require 9-24 credits distributed among three categories. In addition, students are expected to complete credits required by their college and major.

Foreign Language (0-12 credits): Must attain 12th credit level of proficiency in one language. This proficiency must be demonstrated by either examination or course work.

The B.A. Fields (9 credits): Humanities, Social and Behavioral Sciences, Arts, Foreign Languages, Natural Sciences, Quantification. Courses may not be taken in the area of the student's primary major. Foreign language credits in this category must be in a second foreign language or beyond the 12th credit level of proficiency in the first language. Credits must be selected from the list of approved courses at:

Baccalaureate Degrees

Architecture

University Park, College of Arts and Architecture (ARCBS and BARCH)

PROFESSOR DANIEL E. WILLIS, Head, Department of Architecture

The Department of Architecture is a member of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture and the Bachelor of Architecture degree is accredited by the National Architectural Accrediting Board. The major provides for the education of architects at the professional and pre-professional levels.

"In the United States, most state registration boards require a degree from an accredited professional degree program as a prerequisite for licensure. The National Architectural Accrediting Board (NAAB), which is the sole agency authorized to accredit U.S. professional degree programs in architecture, recognizes three types of degrees: the Bachelor of Architecture, the Master of Architecture, and the Doctor of Architecture. A program may be granted a 6-year, 3-year, or 2-year term of accreditation, depending on the extent of its conformance with established educational standards.

Master's degree programs may consist of a pre-professional undergraduate degree and a professional graduate degree that, when earned sequentially, constitute an accredited professional education. However, the pre-professional degree is not, by itself, recognized as an accredited degree." (Excerpt from NAAB Conditions for Accreditation, 2004 Edition)

Bachelor of Architecture

The professional program (BARCH) is a five-year curricular leading to the Bachelor of Architecture degree requiring 162 credits. It prepares those who seek careers as practicing architects. It also provides professional preparation for those who wish to enter related design fields. Graduates of the Bachelor of Architecture program are eligible, after appropriate internship experience, to sit for the Architect Registration Examination. Successful completion of all parts of the Architect Registration Examination is required for registration as an architect. The Bachelor of Architecture curriculum includes coursework in architectural design, history, theory, structural systems, building materials, environmental control systems, visual communications, professional practice, and systems integration. Supporting courses provide students with the flexibility to explore a range of interests, develop concentrations, or pursue minors. A required semester abroad at the Department's facilities in Rome, Italy, is also a component of this program. All students admitted to the University in the Department of Architecture are enrolled in the five-year professional program leading to the Bachelor of Architecture degree. Students enrolled in this program are required to meet standards for retention in the program at two points in their academic career.

Architecture students are reviewed at the end of the fourth semester (second year) for retention in the program. A portfolio of architectural design work examples will be submitted by each student and evaluated by a committee of faculty members. The review will be based on criteria which evaluates growth over the four-semester period and architectural design competence as evidenced in the architectural design work examples presented in the student's portfolio. A positive review will permit the student to continue in the major. A negative review will not permit continuance in the Architecture program. For students who receive a negative review, every effort will be made to advise them into a related discipline.

At the end of the fourth year (135 credits completed), students are again reviewed for retention in the five-year BARCH program. This review evaluates a student's performance by reviewing the overall University grade-point average which must be a minimum of 2.5 and the student's performance in architectural design studio courses where the minimum grade-point average must be 2.67 on the 4.0 scale. In cases where either of these minimums are not met, a portfolio of design work examples will be requested of the student and reviewed by the committee. In cases where retention in the BARCH (five-year) program is not permitted, students having already completed the ARCBS (four-year, 135 credits) requirements will be given a "change of major" and awarded the Bachelor of Science degree in Architecture. Students may also elect to leave Penn State after completing the requirements of the four-year (ARCBS) program and receive the Bachelor of Science degree.

Bachelor of Science

The pre-professional Bachelor of Science degree program in Architecture (ARCBS) is a four-year curriculum which requires a minimum of 135 credits. The curriculum mirrors the first four years of the professional (BARCH) program. The ARCBS program prepares graduates to pursue careers in fields such as construction, real estate development, public administration, or historic preservation. Students may also continue their education at the graduate level in fields such as architecture, urban planning, or law. Enrollment in the pre-professional (ARCBS) program is limited to those students who transfer from the professional (BARCH) program.

Integrated BARCH-MARCH Program

The Department of Architecture offers a limited number of academically superior students enrolled in the fourth year of the program leading to the Bachelor of Architecture degree the opportunity to enroll in an integrated program leading to both the Bachelor of Architecture and the Master of Architecture degrees. The program permits the student to integrate the fifth year of study for the professional BARCH degree with the program of study for the post-professional MARCH degree into a continuous program of study culminating in both degrees. The ability to coordinate as well as concurrently pursue the two degree programs enables the student to achieve greater depth and comprehensiveness than if the degrees are pursued sequentially and to earn the two degrees in a shorter period. In particular, the program encourages students to integrate the undergraduate thesis design project with the master's thesis, thereby achieving a greater depth of inquiry.

The number of openings to this special program is limited; admission is by invitation of the faculty and is extremely selective.

Admission Requirements

Applicants to the integrated program must be enrolled in the fourth year of a BARCH program or otherwise qualified to apply for admission to the fifth year of the BARCH program at Penn State. To be admitted, applicants must be able to meet the following requirements:

--Must have completed a Bachelor of Science in Architecture, or other degree qualifying for admission to the BARCH program, prior to entry into the Integrated Degree program.

--Must be fully accepted into the fifth year of the BARCH program at Penn State.

--Must be unconditionally accepted into the MARCH program at Penn State (see application requirements for the MARCH degree in the Penn State Graduate Degree Programs Bulletin.)

--Must have a minimum 3.20 junior/senior overall grade-point average (on a 4.0 scale) as well as: (1) a minimum 3.20 GPA in architectural design courses (studio), and (2) a minimum 3.20 GPA in all course work except architectural design courses (studio).

--In addition to the normal application requirements for the MARCH degree, the student applicant shall provide a Plan of Study of not more than 1,500 words. The plan shall clearly describe the student's proposed general thesis topic and a strategy for pursuing it, including a list of proposed courses and a list of faculty whom the student foresees as contributing to the course of study.

The best-qualified students will be accepted up to the number of spaces available for new students. Acceptance to the program prior to the completion of all required course work is provisional, contingent upon meeting the previous requirements.

[1] A student enrolled in this major must receive a grade of C or better, as specified in Senate Policy 82-44.

Art Education

University Park, College of Arts and Architecture (A ED)

PROFESSOR CHARLES GAROIAN, Director, School of Visual Arts

This major offers two options: Art Education for Schools, and Art Education for Museums and Cultural Institutions. The purpose of the program is to prepare knowledgeable, skilled, and caring professional educators to become critical, reflective practitioners, researchers and artists, and agents of change for social justice in diverse contexts of educational practice; generate and disseminate knowledge that leads to new pedagogical understandings on which more effective policies and practices can be grounded; and collaborate across disciplines, professions, and constituencies to promote social change that leads to educational improvement and transformation. An integral part of each option involves a variety of observational and participatory experiences in art learning environments, and an extensive pre-practice internship. Upon completion of the option, employment prospects and/or acceptance for advanced graduate studies depends upon individual achievement and qualifications. (See also Teacher Education Programs (general information.cfm?section=SpecialAP6).

For the B.S. degree in Art Education with an option in Art Education for Museums and Cultural Institutions, a minimum of 120 credits is required; with an option in Art Education for Schools, a minimum of 132 credits is required.

Graphic Design

University Park, College of Arts and Architecture (GD)

PROFESSOR WILLIAM KELLY, Head, Department of Integrative Arts

This degree is intended to prepare students for careers in graphic design. The program includes the technical skills and the creative and intellectual capacity essential to the practices of graphic design and is intended to prepare students for employment in design studios, advertising agencies, packaging, publications and corporate design, film and television graphics, and Web and interactive design.

Acceptance into the Graphic Design major is determined by a portfolio review by faculty after the completion of GD 001S(1), GD 100 GA(3), GD 101(2), GD 102(3), GD 200(3), GD 201(3), PHOTO 100 GA(3), and PHOTO 200(3) with grades of C or better in all of these courses. Typically, this review will take place in fourth semester. Applicants who are not accepted into the major may re-apply the following year but must realize that this course of action could delay their graduation by at least one year.

Interdisciplinary Digital Studio

University Park, College of Arts and Architecture (IDS)

PROFESSOR CHARLES GAROIAN, in charge

This degree represents an interdisciplinary approach to emerging technologies and the arts and design disciplines of the College of Arts and Architecture incorporating architecture, landscape architecture, graphic design, music, photography, theatre design, and visual arts. The IDS degree begins with a foundation in arts and design [ART 110S(3), ART 111(3)] a two semester sequence of linked studio practice and theory courses that cover fundamental ideas and skills in the arts and design disciplines such as drawing, color theory, and 2-d, 3-d, and 4-d design within the context of art and design history and theory. The IDS program builds on this foundational core utilizing selected courses from across the College of Arts and Architecture. These courses range from digital fabrication to sound design and composition in music, theatre, and art, to digitally-based art explorations, to digital photography, to the exploration of virtual architectural and built environment spaces, to digital art and design theory and criticism, to internet exhibitions and publishing. Concurrent with these courses, students progress through the series of IDS studio courses (A&A 110, 210, 310, 410 and 411) in which they will develop ways of learning that will enable them to understand how to work within collaborative professional environments. This will prepare students to meet the varying challenges they will face within client-based arts and design professions.

For the B.Des. Degree in Interdisciplinary Digital Studio, a minimum of 120 credits is required.

Landscape Architecture

University Park, College of Arts and Architecture (LARCH)

PROFESSOR BRIAN ORLAND, Head of the Department

Landscape architecture is the art of design, planning, or management of the land and of the natural and built elements upon it. As an academic discipline, it embodies creative, cultural, philosophical, and scientific knowledge bases. As a professional discipline, the practice of landscape architecture includes site design, urban design, master planning, community planning, regional planning, resource conservation, and stewardship.

For those selected to major in this field, the program is a five-year curriculum leading to a professionally accredited Bachelor of Landscape Architecture degree. A minor is strongly encouraged. One semester of the curriculum is spent in a required semester abroad. The program helps prepare graduates for either advanced study or professional careers. The curriculum develops both the creative disciplines and the technical skills essential to practice, as well as to the pursuit of interests in related fields. With appropriate work experience with a registered practitioner, graduates are eligible to take the state licensing examination.

For the Bachelor of Landscape Architecture degree, a minimum of 148 credits is required.

Integrated B.A. in Music - M.A. in Music Theory

The School of Music offers a limited number of academically superior students enrolled in the Bachelor of Arts in Music the opportunity to enroll in an integrated program leading to both the B.A. in Music and the Master of Arts in Music Theory in a continuous program of study culminating in both degrees. The ability to coordinate as well as concurrently pursue the two degree programs enables the student to achieve greater depth and comprehensiveness than if the degrees are pursued sequentially and to earn the two degrees in five years. In particular, the program encourages the student to integrate the undergraduate thesis with the master's thesis thereby achieving a greater depth of inquiry.

Application Process

To initiate the application process, students must submit a transcript, faculty recommendation, writing sample, and statement of goals. A faculty adviser will help undergraduate candidates determine a sequence of courses that will prepare them for acceptance into the IUG program. Normally a student would apply after the fourth semester and before the end of the sixth semester. For acceptance into the program students must successfully complete the following courses or their equivalent with a minimum average of 3.5 in their music courses, and a minimum GPA of 3.0.

4 semesters of music theory (MUSIC 131, MUSIC 132, MUSIC 231, MUSIC 331)
4 semesters of musicianship (MUSIC 121, MUSIC 122, MUSIC 221, MUSIC 222)
3 semesters of music history (MUSIC 162, MUSIC 261, MUSIC 262)

Reduced Course Load

As many as twelve of the credits required for the master's degree may be applied to both undergraduate and graduate degree programs. A minimum of 50% of the courses proposed to count for both degrees must be at the 500 level. Thesis credits may not be double counted.

B.A. Senior Project (Music 476W) / M.A. Thesis (Music 600)

Students will be encouraged to select a B.A. Senior Project topic (Music 476W) that will later develop into the M.A. Thesis. It is expected that the Master's Thesis consist of greater depth and specialization than the Senior Project.

Eligibility for a Graduate Assistantship

Students in the IUG program will be eligible for a graduate assistantship starting in the beginning of the fifth year.

Tuition Charges

Undergraduate tuition rates will apply as long as the student is an undergraduate, unless the student received financial support, for example, an assistantship requiring the payment of graduate tuition (from "Information and Guidelines for Establishing Integrated Undergraduate-Graduate Degree Programs" - approved by the Graduate Council, May 8, 1996).

Integrated B.M. in Performance - M.A. in Music Theory

The School of Music offers a limited number of academically superior students enrolled in the Bachelor of Music the opportunity to enroll in an integrated program leading to both the B.M. in Performance and the Master of Arts in Theory in a continuous program of study culminating in both degrees. The ability to coordinate as well as concurrently pursue the two degree programs enables the student to achieve greater depth and comprehensiveness than if the degrees are pursued sequentially and to earn the two degrees in five years.

Application Process

To initiate the application process, students must submit a transcript, faculty recommendation, writing sample, and statement of goals. A faculty adviser will help undergraduate candidates determine a sequence of courses that will prepare them for acceptance into the IUG program. Normally a student would apply after the fourth semester and before the end of the sixth semester. For acceptance into the program students must successfully complete the following courses or their equivalent with a minimum average of 3.5 in their music courses, and a minimum GPA of 3.0.

4 semesters of music theory (MUSIC 131, MUSIC 132, MUSIC 231, MUSIC 331)

4 semesters of musicianship (MUSIC 121, MUSIC 122, MUSIC 221, MUSIC 222)

3 semesters of music history (MUSIC 162, MUSIC 261, MUSIC 262)

Reduced Course Load

As many as twelve of the credits required for the master's degree may be applied to both undergraduate and graduate degree programs. A minimum of 50% of the courses proposed to count for both degrees must be at the 500 level. Thesis credits may not be double counted.

Eligibility for a Graduate Assistantship

Students in the IUG program will be eligible for a graduate assistantship starting in the beginning of the fifth year.

Tuition Charges

Undergraduate tuition rates will apply as long as the student is an undergraduate, unless the student received financial support, for example, an assistantship requiring the payment of graduate tuition (from "Information and Guidelines for Establishing Integrated Undergraduate - Graduate Degree Programs" - approved by the Graduate Council, May 8, 1996).

This program offers the theatre student a general background in the various facets of theatre. A broad liberal education is provided and complemented with advanced courses to best serve student interests, talents, and career objectives. Though a strong emphasis is given to the areas of production and performance, majors may also wish to emphasize an area of special interest such as literature, design or acting. Many students choose to spend a semester in study abroad.

Students learn to research, analyze and synthesize information. Majors develop strong oral and written skills and many go on to postgraduate study not only in theatre but in areas such as law, business and education.

Entrance criteria to this major include an audition or interview with members of the Theatre faculty.

For the B.A. degree in Theatre, a minimum of 120 credits is required.

Theatre

University Park, College of Arts and Architecture (THRFA)

PROFESSOR WILLIAM KENYON, B.F.A. Program Coordinator, Design and Technology Option

PROFESSOR TRAVIS DeCASTRO, B.F.A. Program Coordinator, Stage Management Option

Not all options are available at every campus. Contact the campus you are interested in attending to determine which options are offered.

The Bachelor of Fine Arts in Theatre offers two options: Design and Technology, and Stage Management.

The B.F.A. degree in Theatre with the Design and Technology option is intended to develop a level of competence that will enable students who wish to pursue professional careers in theatre design, theatre technology and related entertainment fields to prepare themselves for specialized graduate studies, specialized professional training and/or immediate participation in creative work. The prescribed core curriculum introduces students to each of the theatre design areas and provides them with a basic skill level in technology. The curriculum also features acting, directing, script analysis, theatre history and criticism. Students choose an emphasis area after their third semester to focus their awareness, their capabilities and their critical faculties or abilities in their area of interest.

For the B.F.A. degree in Theatre with the Stage Management option is intended to provide students with specialized training leading to a high level of competence in the stage management field. Graduates should be able to begin professional work or pursue further training at the graduate level. The Stage Management option is intended to educate students for a career in stage management for theatre.

Acceptance into the Design and Technology option is based on a faculty interview and portfolio review. Acceptance into the Stage Management option is based on a faculty interview and production book review. Both options require a minimum of 120 credits.

Art History Minor

University Park, College of Arts and Architecture (ART H)

The minor in Art History provides students with a broad introduction to the history of Western and Eastern art, as well as the opportunity for more specialized study in one or two fields, from ancient to contemporary. Specialized study may concentrate upon one region of the world (i.e. Italian art) or one period (i.e. medieval). A student should seek the advice of her/his minor adviser on course selections. The study of art history develops a student's visual acuity by providing a critical understanding of visual culture in a diversity of societies around the world. Students learn to understand art within the contexts of religion, politics, philosophy, culture, technology, society, and gender. A minor in Art History can be of particular interest for students pursuing careers in art, art education, history, anthropology, archaeology, classics, English, foreign literature, cultural studies, international business, and arts administration.

A grade of C or better is required for all courses in the minor.

PROGRAM CURRENTLY ON HOLD; NOT ACCEPTING NEW STUDENTS Begin Date of Enrollment Hold: Summer Session 2003

Digital Arts and Information Sciences and Technology Minor (ENROLLMENT HOLD)

University Park, College of Arts and Architecture (DGAIS)

University Park, College of Information Sciences and Technology

PROFESSOR WILLIAM KELLY, in charge, College of Arts and Architecture

PROFESSOR JOSEPH LAMBERT, in charge, College of Information Sciences and Technology

Information management skills are becoming an integral part of our lives and practices, including those who practice in the arts. The arts are becoming increasingly dependent upon electronic technologies that enable greater interactivity, rapid experimentation and dissemination, and new possibilities for creative expression through such mediums as computer modeling, digital imaging, animation and digital audio and video. The College of Arts and Architecture/IST minor provides students with a basic introduction to the core curriculum of the School of Information Sciences and Technology combined with a selection of interdisciplinary digital media courses in the arts. The Digital Arts/IST minor will focus on the creative and critical uses of the new technologies to produce digital graphic images, two and three dimensional models and rendering and moving animation and audio processing. As a result, students in both the arts and information science will be better prepared for personal and professional advancement by learning to explore digital media as fine art tools that engage them in critical and creative ways beyond the technical mastery of software and hardware.

Students must apply to the minor no later than the beginning of their 5th semester. A one-time tuition surcharge will be applied to all students enrolled in the minor. A grade of C or better is required for all courses in this minor.

Music Minor

University Park, College of Arts and Architecture (MUSIC)

PROFESSOR SUE HAUG, Director, School of Music

The minor in music serves a wide variety of needs among the students who elect it. Those who have studied voice or an instrument through their high school years may pursue that study at a more advanced level. Participants in bands, orchestras, and choirs want to continue that activity at a higher level. Some find the minor an important adjunct to other studies such as speech pathology and audiology, speech communication, or broadcasting. Those in very demanding majors build music into their lives as a balancing influence. Other students relate music studies to their major; a recent Schreyer Honors College history major did her thesis on song during the Civil War. Admission to the minor depends upon a successful performance audition. Minors enroll for the same sequence of performance levels as do the B.A. and B.S. music majors. Each student registers for core courses in music theory, history, and performance. Students usually opt to focus on one of the three areas in their upper-level courses.

A grade of C or better is required for all courses in the minor.

PROFESSOR MARK BALLORA, in charge, School of Music and Department of Integrative Arts

PROFESSOR CURTIS GRAIG, in charge, School of Theatre

Administered by faculty from the College of Arts & Architecture's School of Music, School of Theatre and Department of Integrative Arts, the Minor in Music Technology is appropriate for undergraduate students seeking to apply domains of knowledge from their majors or General Education programs to issues of audio production and digital technology in music.

The program consists of prescribed foundation courses in musical acoustics, digital audio, sound design and audio recording. Supporting course work allows students to focus in advanced topics such as music software programming, multi-media, or entertainment systems.

The Music Technology Minor Committee is authorized to award a minor certificate to any undergraduate who, in addition to satisfying the degree requirements of his or her baccalaureate major, satisfies the requirements for the Music Technology Minor. The completion of the minor is reflected by a formal notation in the student's official record at the time of graduation.

Students who have earned at least a grade of C in INART 050 and INART 258 may apply for admission to the program by submitting an application to the Committee.

University Park, College of Arts and Architecture (THEA)*

PROFESSOR DAN CARTER, Director, School of Theatre

The theatre minor is designed to be an enhancement to a major area of study and/or personal enrichment. The minor should be particularly attractive to students in the humanities (English), communication (Film, Journalism), and the arts (Music, Architecture). The minor may also be attractive to students who need to demonstrate a wide range of interests.

The theatre minor requirements total 18 hours. Theatre 410, an advanced script analysis course, is also required. Students choose one course from the approved list of theatre history courses and one course from the approved list of design/technical courses. These supporting courses place the literature and aesthetic in historical, social, and political perspective. Students elect 6 theatre credits as additional courses. Typical supporting courses include: Theatre 102 GA, fundamentals of acting; THEA 208 GA;US;IL, Workshop: Theatre in Diverse Cultures; and advanced design or theatre history classes.

This is the official bulletin of The Pennsylvania State University. Programmatic expectations for General Education are those in effect at the time of admission to degree candidacy, and college and major requirements are those in effect at the time of entry to college and major. These are accurately indicated in each student's degree audit.

The University reserves the right to change the requirements and regulations listed here and to determine whether a student has satisfactorily met its requirements for admission or graduation, and to reject any applicant for any reason the University determines to be material to the applicant's qualifications to pursue higher education. Nothing in this material should be considered a guarantee that completion of a program and graduation from the University will result in employment.

The University Faculty Senate has responsibility for and authority over all academic information contained in the Undergraduate Bulletin.
