

GERONTOLOGY POSTBACCALAUREATE CREDIT CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Learning Outcomes

1. Demonstrate an in-depth knowledge of the assessment of the biological, physical, clinical, functional, cognitive, psychological, and social changes associated with aging.
2. Demonstrate an understanding of both common acute and chronic health issues experienced by older adults and interventions to address these issues.
3. Demonstrate an understanding of primary palliative care as it applies to the older adult population.
4. Demonstrate an understanding of relevant theories in relation to delivering person-centered care.