

HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT GRADUATE CREDIT CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Person-in-Charge	Donna Quadri-Felitti
Program Code	HM_GCT
Campus(es)	University Park

The graduate certificate in Hospitality Management enabled business professionals to acquire new skills to meet the demands of the rapidly changing global hospitality industry. The certificate provides a comprehensive overview of the hospitality industry, helps students to incorporate data analytics in their decision-making processes and provides students with skills to conduct applied research.

Credits earned in the Hospitality Management certificate apply to the Master of Professional Studies (MPS) in Hospitality Management.

Admission Requirements

Applicants apply for admission to the program via the Graduate School Application for Admission (GRADS) (<https://gradschool.psu.edu/graduate-program-resources/grads-information/grads-access/>). ¹ A comprehensive overview of the hospitality industry including foundational aspects that HM master candidates will use throughout their coursework. The content will include an overview of the various segments of the industry and the current events and future trends that will impact those segments.

² This course is for both aspiring and established leaders in the hospitality industry. It offers a cross-disciplinary curriculum taught by area experts and aims at helping students analyze, understand, translate, and incorporate data in their decision-making processes when designing and executing data-driven competitive strategies.

³ This course addresses the methods and skills necessary to conduct applied research: developing research questions determining a research design, identifying appropriate research methodologies, collecting and analyzing data, and providing solutions.

Courses

Graduate courses carry numbers from 500 to 699 and 800 to 899. Advanced undergraduate courses numbered between 400 and 499 may be used to meet some graduate degree requirements when taken by graduate students. Courses below the 400 level may not. A graduate student may register for or audit these courses in order to make up deficiencies or to fill in gaps in previous education but not to meet requirements for an advanced degree.
