

LEADERSHIP AND COMMUNICATION SKILLS FOR ECOSYSTEM MANAGERS GRADUATE CREDIT CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Person-in-Charge	Marc McDill
Program Code	ECSYLD
Campus(es)	World Campus

The Graduate Certificate in Leadership and Communication Skills for Ecosystem Managers (LCSEM Certificate) requires 12 credits, consisting of four 3-credit courses. The program is intended for people who are working as natural resources managers in higher-level management and leadership positions or for those who wish to move into such positions. The program is designed to provide ecosystem managers with critical skills for addressing complex environmental issues that often involve diverse stakeholders and interests. The program helps managers develop their planning, leadership, communication, and conflict resolution skills. They also develop a deeper understanding of the legal, policy, and economic context within which they must work to accomplish their goals.

Effective Semester: Fall 2018
