

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT IN AFRICA GRADUATE CREDIT CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Admission Requirements

Applicants apply for admission to the program via the Graduate School application for admission (<https://gradschool.psu.edu/graduate-admissions/how-to-apply/>). Requirements listed here are in addition to Graduate Council policies listed under GCAC-300 Admissions Policies (<https://gradschool.psu.edu/graduate-education-policies/>). International applicants may be required to satisfy an English proficiency requirement; see GCAC-305 Admission Requirements for International Students (<https://gradschool.psu.edu/graduate-education-policies/gcac/gcac-300/gcac-305-admission-requirements-international-students/>) for more information.

Students enrolled in graduate programs at Penn State University and non-degree students currently not enrolled in a graduate degree program may apply to the African Studies Program for admission to this certificate program via the Graduate School application. The requirements for admission for students in degree programs include relevant academic background and a GPA of 3.0. Admission requirements for non-degree applicants include relevant academic background, work experience, and a GPA of 2.5 and above.
