SYSTEMS ENGINEERING
GRADUATE CREDIT
CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Learning Outcomes
Students will be able to:

1. Develop heterogeneous engineered solutions to complex problems using contemporary methods, processes, and tools.
2. Understand system interdependencies and the ability to analyze the associated trade spaces these generate to identify optimal solution alternatives.
3. Graduates will be able to effectively communicate their ideas within their organization, to other practicing professionals and the general public.