LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Graduates will be able to discuss current issues in online K-12 education regarding the laws, policies, organizational structures, and teaching standards of cybercharter and online public schools.

2. Graduates will demonstrate practical knowledge of the best practices for development and delivery of online instructional materials to a K-12 student audience.

3. Graduates will demonstrate competence in the online instruction of K-12 students as defined by the most recent iNACOL Standards for Quality Online Teaching.

4. Graduates will demonstrate the ability to integrate teaching/learning technologies to online K-12 educational contexts in accordance with foundational theory in LDT.