ACCOUNTING (SMEAL)

Learning Outcomes

- Communication Skills – Argue one’s point persuasively in written form and oral presentation.
- Global Perspective – Anticipate, understand, and explain the global forces that influence business decisions and accounting practices.
- Ethical Decision Making – Be both a principled leader and a valuable member of a team while adhering to professional accounting standards.
- Problem Solving Skills – Analyze a complicated business problem using the best tools, theories, and evidence, complemented by the ability to recommend solutions and implement plans.
- Integrative Understanding – Consider many perspectives in analyzing and recommending solutions to business problems.