Dual-Title M.S. in Landscape Architecture and Human Dimensions of Natural Resources and the Environment

Requirements listed here are in addition to requirements listed in GCAC-208 Dual-Title Graduate Degree Programs (<http://gradschool.psu.edu/graduate-education-policies/gcac/gcac-200/gcac-208-dual-title-graduate-degree-programs/>).

Graduate students with research and educational interests in landscape architecture or a closely related discipline (e.g., architecture, geography, ecology, anthropology, etc.) may apply to the dual-title M.S. degree in Landscape Architecture and Human Dimensions of Natural Resources and the Environment Program. The goal of the dual-title M.S. degree Landscape Architecture and Human Dimensions of Natural Resources and the Environment is to enable graduate students from Landscape Architecture to acquire the knowledge and skills of their major area of specialization in Landscape Architecture, while at the same time gaining the perspective and methods of Human Dimensions of Natural Resources and the Environment.

Admission Requirements

Students must apply and be admitted to the graduate program in Landscape Architecture and The Graduate School before they can apply for admission to the dual-title degree program. After admission to their primary program, students must apply for admission to and meet the admissions requirements of the HDNRE dual-title program. Refer to the Admission Requirements section of the HDNRE Bulletin page (<http://bulletins.psu.edu/graduate/programs/majors/human-dimensions-natural-resources-environment/>).

Degree Requirements

To qualify for this dual-title degree, students must satisfy the requirements of the Landscape Architecture Master of Science degree program, listed on the Degree Requirements tab. In addition, they must satisfy the HDNRE program requirements for the dual-title master's degree. Refer to the Master's Degree Requirements section of the HDNRE Bulletin page (<http://bulletins.psu.edu/graduate/programs/majors/human-dimensions-natural-resources-environment/>). Some courses may satisfy both the graduate primary program requirements and those of the HDNRE program. Final course selection is determined by the student after consulting, in advance, with their Landscape Architecture and HDNRE advisers.

For the dual-title M.S. degree in Landscape Architecture and HDNRE, the thesis must reflect the student's education and interest in both Landscape Architecture and HDNRE. All members of the student's committee must be members of the Graduate Faculty. The master's committee must include at least one Graduate Faculty member from HDNRE. Faculty members who hold appointments in both programs' Graduate Faculty may serve in a combined role.
