

TEACHING AND CURRICULUM

Learning Outcomes

1. Employ effective communication skills with school-aged students, parents, co-workers, and administrators.
2. Apply their enhanced ability to provide instruction and utilize materials and content in intellectual and emotional climates for learning.
3. Select and use a variety of educational assessment techniques.
4. Analyze, synthesize, and evaluate educational literature and research and demonstrate competency as a teacher-researcher.
5. Evaluate major issues and current trends in instructional curriculum practice and development.
6. Adopt a critical thinking approach to instructional practices to provide meaningful and relevant learning experiences for all students.
7. Engage in scholarship that informs and guides their professional knowledge and practice.
8. Advocate for equity and social justice in the school and community.
9. Endeavor to undertake continual learning opportunities and growth in their educational community.