

INTERNATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Penn State Law and its partners have developed specialized off-campus international study programs to prepare students for the complexity of international issues that practitioners face in an increasingly interconnected world. Participants will enhance their understanding of language, culture, and legal systems to be effective practitioners in the United States and abroad.

MORE INFORMATION (<https://pennstatelaw.psu.edu/international/education-abroad>)