

JOINT DEGREES

As part of a great research university, Penn State Law collaborates with the University's Graduate School to offer joint degree programs.

Now Accepting GRE Scores for Joint Degree Applicants

Penn State Law is now accepting the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) for applicants seeking the J.D. in combination with a graduate degree in a different discipline at Penn State. More information is available on the Penn State Law website (<https://pennstatelaw.psu.edu/news/penn-state-law-university-park-expands-admissions-accept-gre-joint-degree-seekers/>).

International Affairs (M.I.A.)

Penn State Law and the School of International Affairs (SIA), which is co-located with the law school in the Lewis Katz Building, offer a joint degree leading to a Juris Doctor (J.D.) and Master of International Affairs (M.I.A.).
