

PENN STATE ABINGTON, THE ABINGTON COLLEGE

Honors Programs

Schreyer Honors College

The Schreyer Honors College, regarded as one of the nation's top programs of its kind, promotes achieving academic excellence with integrity, building a global perspective, and creating opportunities for leadership and civic engagement. Schreyer Scholars, including those admitted after their first or second year of enrollment, are a diverse and motivated group of approximately 2,000 students at University Park and 20 Commonwealth campuses. The College strives to educate students who will have an important and ethical influence in the world, to improve educational practice, and to continue to be recognized as a leading force in honors education nationwide.

Other Honors Programs

The Abington Honors Program fosters a community of outstanding students and committed faculty and staff. Select first-year students are invited to participate based on exceptional academic achievement and potential.

Faculty and staff work to provide a rich and challenging academic experience with perks and privileges that reflect students' honors status. Benefits include an honors scholarship, priority course registration, distinctive honors curriculum courses in smaller classes, international study, and leadership opportunities. Many students also choose to participate in the Abington College Undergraduate Research Activities (ACURA) program to perform hands-on undergraduate research in close collaboration with a faculty mentor.
