

HUMAN DEVELOPMENT AND FAMILY STUDIES, A.S. (ALTOONA)

Begin Campus: Altoona

End Campus: Altoona

Program Learning Objectives

- Understanding of the complexity of individual and family development across the lifespan in diverse contexts and in changing environments.
- Evaluate and Apply Research and Theory to Practice and Policy.
- Ability to analyze processes, policies, and contextual factors that affect the delivery of human services to individuals and families.
- Professional ethical and culturally sensitive standards of conduct.
- Knowledge and competence in helping, leadership, and administrative human service skills.