

PENN STATE BERKS, THE BERKS COLLEGE

Honors Programs

Schreyer Honors College

The Schreyer Honors College, regarded as one of the nation's top programs of its kind, promotes achieving academic excellence with integrity, building a global perspective, and creating opportunities for leadership and civic engagement. Schreyer Scholars, including those admitted after their first or second year of enrollment, are a diverse and motivated group of approximately 2,000 students at University Park and 20 Commonwealth campuses. The College strives to educate students who will have an important and ethical influence in the world, to improve educational practice, and to continue to be recognized as a leading force in honors education nationwide.

Honors at Penn State Berks

Penn State Berks offers the Berks College Honors Program. Students may select from a variety of special honors courses, honors options, independent study, and research programs. At the beginning of each academic semester, students work closely with both an academic adviser and the honors coordinator to develop individualized academic plans. Students receive several benefits including priority registration, semester-long library loans, partially-funded international travel, access to the Honors Student Lounge, and guidance on national and international scholarships.
