

MIDDLE LEVEL EDUCATION, B.S.

Begin Campus: Any Penn State Campus

End Campus: University Park

Program Description

The Middle Level Education major prepares graduates to teach all subjects in grades 4-6 and English, Mathematics, or Social Studies in grades 7-8. The Middle Level Education major supports candidates' understanding of subject-specific content as well as methods of teaching appropriate for early adolescents in grades 4-8. Upon graduation, students will have met all coursework and field experience requirements for the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE) 4-8 English, 4-8 Mathematics, or 4-8 Social Studies Instructional I Certificate. In addition, they will have been prepared for the appropriate teacher certification exams as required by PDE for initial certification.

This program undergoes accreditation by the Council for Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) with a Specialized Professional Association (SPA) review conducted by the American Middle Level Association (AMLE).

What is Middle Level Education?

The Middle Level Education (MLVED) major prepares graduates to teach all subjects in grades 4-6 and English, Mathematics, or Social Studies in grades 7-8. Middle level education has its own history, research-derived knowledge, and practices. The MLVED major supports candidates' understanding of subject-specific content as well as methods of teaching appropriate for early adolescents in grades 4-8.
