CIVIL ENGINEERING, B.S. (ENGINEERING)

Begin Campus: Any Penn State Campus
End Campus: University Park

Career Paths
Civil engineers are responsible for designing, building, and maintaining the critical systems that support society and protect the environment. Graduates of the civil engineering program are prepared to be innovative leaders in a diverse range of industries. Students are routinely recruited for positions in the public sector with government agencies or in the private sector at consulting firms or construction companies. Students may also choose to continue their formal education by pursuing advanced degrees, and many remain in academia upon graduation.

Careers
Our graduates work in a variety of fields to develop solutions for challenges in design, construction, research, and education. Civil engineering graduates work in the public sector for government agencies or in the private sector at consulting or construction firms. Some civil engineers hold supervisory or administrative positions, while others pursue careers in design, construction, or education.

Opportunities for Graduate Studies
In our graduate programs, students learn in the classroom and the laboratory, finding a broad network of mentors and collaborators. After graduation, many career options await.

- The one-year Master of Engineering (M.Eng.) (https://www.cee.psu.edu/academics/graduate/degrees-and-requirements.aspx#MEng) program gives you a strong foundation and leads to advanced professional practice.
- The Master of Science (M.S.) (https://www.cee.psu.edu/academics/graduate/degrees-and-requirements.aspx#MS) program blends advanced coursework and research, producing highly sought-after graduates.
- The Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) (https://www.cee.psu.edu/academics/graduate/degrees-and-requirements.aspx#PhD) program provides a comprehensive educational and research opportunity, challenging students to be leaders of their fields.

What could you achieve with an advanced degree from the Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering at Penn State?
