

ATHLETIC TRAINING, B.S.

Begin Campus: Any Penn State Campus

End Campus: University Park

Accreditation

The Bachelor of Science in Athletic Training degree is a competency-based professional program accredited by the Commission on the Accreditation of Athletic Training Education. The program earned initial accreditation in 1997, and reaccreditation in 2008, and 2019. The next accreditation review, including site visit, is scheduled for the 2028-2029 cycle.

We currently anticipate that our last cycle for admitting students through the undergraduate Athletic Training major will be Fall Semester 2020. This means first-year students entering Penn State in Fall Semester 2019 would still be eligible to graduate from this degree program (since students typically formally apply to the major in the third semester of their second year).

Comprehensive information on the Athletic Training major can be found at: <https://hhd.psu.edu/kines/undergraduate/major-athletic-training> (<https://hhd.psu.edu/kines/undergraduate/major-athletic-training/>).

Information on Penn State admissions can be found at: <https://admissions.psu.edu/>.

Updates on transition of the Athletic Training program to a master's-level professional degree, when available, will be posted at: <https://hhd.psu.edu/kines/athletic-training-transition-masters-level-professional-degree> (<https://hhd.psu.edu/kines/athletic-training-transition-masters-level-professional-degree/>).

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE COMMISSION ON THE ACCREDITATION OF ATHLETIC TRAINING EDUCATION (<https://caate.net/>)