Requirements for an undergraduate certificate may be completed at any campus location offering the specified courses for the certificate.

Program Description
This certificate program is designed to improve the quality of planned programs in a wide variety of community settings. The primary goal of the program is to provide a flexible and convenient opportunity for self-enhancement, further education and professional development for those currently working or considering a career in human service settings. Courses are required in three areas:

1. Foundation Courses (9 credits)
2. Professional Core (15 credits) and
3. Professional Electives (6 credits).

What is Children, Youth, and Family Services?
This certificate program is designed to prepare you for a variety of roles in child and youth service settings and family health and welfare agencies. If you want to begin a career in human services, this online certificate can give you the opportunity to learn about psychosocial and family development at all stages of the life cycle — and you won't have to set foot on campus.

You Might Like This Program If...
- You plan to begin a career in a human services-related profession.
- You want to work with various age groups in centers, institutions, and agencies.