FRENCH AND FRANCOPHONE STUDIES, B.S.

Begin Campus: Any Penn State Campus

End Campus: University Park

Program Learning Objectives

- Have the linguistic tools and cultural knowledge that will permit them to interact with French speakers in a variety of contexts.
- Have increased their awareness of French and Francophone culture.
- Have developed a basic understanding of theoretical approaches to French linguistics.
- Have developed a unique perspective from which to view their own culture.
- (Ideally) Have participated in study abroad and/or other international experiences.
- Have developed an understanding of the art, literature, and music of France and the Francophone world.
- Have attained the knowledge necessary to pursue the study of French beyond the undergraduate level.