LINGUISTICS, B.A.

Begin Campus: Any Penn State Campus

End Campus: University Park

Program Learning Objectives

- Analytical Ability: Students will be able to find and describe patterns in language data using methodologies common in any subfield of linguistics
- Communication: Linguistics students will be able to communicate their knowledge and understanding efficiently and clearly
- Content Knowledge: Students will be able to explain and use major concepts, theories, and empirical findings within the field of linguistics
- Creativity: Students are able to apply their knowledge of linguistic theory to describe elements of the grammar at least one non-English language