About the College
Charles H. Whiteman, John and Karen Arnold Dean, Smeal College of Business

The Penn State Smeal College of Business is a vibrant intellectual community offering highly ranked undergraduate, graduate, doctoral, and executive education opportunities to more than 8,000 students from across the country and around the world. Since our introduction in 1953, we have prepared more than 90,000 students for professional success, annually adding to Penn State’s vast alumni network. We are a destination of choice for top global organizations seeking talent that will make a positive difference. Through our leading faculty and network of research centers and institutes, we are a source of knowledge that influences the business practices of tomorrow. We are forging connections, creating opportunities, and producing results.

Mission
A leader in business education and research, we make meaningful impacts on society by:

• Providing extraordinary education with a global perspective and real-world application
• Producing the highest caliber research that informs and inspires ethical, sustainable, and innovative business practices
• Partnering with and preparing learners for lifelong success
• Building and promoting a culture of integrity, diversity, service, and sustainability

Purpose
Your success as a leader depends on what you know and what you do. Equally important, however, is who you have around you from the start. For this, we are a partner for life. We are everywhere in the world and always in your corner — ready to open doors, offer advice, and cheer you on. Wherever you are today or imagine yourself tomorrow, bring your talent, drive, and determination, and we’ll prepare you for your next great opportunity, and the one after that.
