FAQs

1. Where can I find a list of General Education courses and information about requirements?
 - For information about General Education requirements, please see the General Education (<https://bulletins.psu.edu/undergraduate/general-education/>) section in this Bulletin.
2. The General Education requirements have changed. Do the new requirements apply to me?
 - The new General Education requirements apply to students who start at Penn State in Summer 2018 and later. Requirements have not changed for students who began at Penn State before this semester. The older set of requirements can be found in the Archives page. Additional information is available on the Office of General Education website (<https://gened.psu.edu>).
3. What does the blue keystone symbol mean?
 - The keystone indicates that the course is designated as a General Education course. See the degree requirements for your program to identify the General Education courses that are required. Not all courses marked with the keystone count as meeting General Education requirements when required within your program. See the program requirements and speak to an adviser regarding General Education courses that count or do not count toward the General Education requirements.
4. Where can I find bachelor of arts degree requirements?
