CARDIOLOGY - MD (CAR)

CAR 713: Cardiovascular Medicine

1-2 Credits

Course provides exposure to basic concepts in histology/pathology, biochemistry, physiology, pharmacology, and clinical medicine related to cardiovascular medicine.

Prerequisite: must have completed all preceding course work in the first year of medical school

CAR 722: Cardiology

4.5 Credits

These areas will be studied: Symptoms and Signs; Systemic Arterial Hypertension; Atherosclerosis; Heart Failure; Congenital Heart Disease; Infectious, Inflammatory, and Immunologic Disease; Connective Tissue Disorders; Electrical Abnormalities; and Lipid Disorders.

Prerequisite: successful completion of MS Year I