

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (ITECH)

ITECH 495: Internship

0.5-3 Credits/Maximum of 3

Supervised on or off-campus, nongroup instruction including field experiences, practica, or internships. Written and oral critique of activity required IST 495 is offered as an internship for a student within a company. Faculty and industry collaborate to specify the duties of the intern. The course facilitator responsible for the course then approves the internship. The internship must consist of a minimum of 240 hours for 1 credit and 120 hours for .5 credit of meaningful information and technology-related tasks per credit hour.